

Earn Money, Credit, & Experience

Grants & internships available annually to undergraduate and graduate students

$4,000 Student Research Grants/Internships are available to students to conduct research on energy related projects or work at municipal electric utilities. A mid-project report, final report and abstract are required. Annual Deadline: Feb. 15 & Oct. 15

$5,000 Technical Design Project is available to a student or group of students working on an energy related project. This research grant is geared towards engineering students working on their senior project. A mid-project report, final report and abstract are required. Additional travel expenses are included for the student(s) to present their work at APPA's Engineering and Operations Technical Conference. Annual Deadline: Oct. 15

For more information and an application visit
<http://www.PublicPower.org/DEED>

Student grants & internships are available annually through the American Public Power Association's Demonstration of Energy-Efficient Developments (DEED) Program.