What is the Business & Financial Virtual Conference?

While we can't meet in person this year, APPA will be bringing together public power managers and senior executives in utility accounting and finance, customer accounting and services, human resources and training, information technology, pricing and market analysis, and risk management and insurance through this interactive, virtual event.

What is the American Public Power Association?

We're the voice of not-for-profit, community-owned utilities that power 2,000 towns and cities nationwide. We represent public power before the federal government to protect the interests of the more than 49 million customers that public power utilities serve and the 93,000 people they employ. Our association advocates and advises on electricity policy, technology, trends, training, and operations. Our members strengthen their communities by providing superior service, engaging citizens, and instilling pride in community-owned power.

Why should my company participate?

As a sponsor, you'll have access to and visibility with key public power decision-makers and decision-influencers. Conference sponsors receive many valuable branding and networking opportunities. From interactive breakout sessions to informal roundtables and networking hours, you'll have many opportunities to spread the word about your products and services.

Save money on this event! Become a corporate associate member.

Corporate associate membership distinguishes your company as a lead supporter of public power and provides tangible benefits that get your company in front of the nation's 2,000 community-owned electric utilities. We offer two levels – standard and Elite – to fit your needs and budget. Both options provide your employees with significant benefits, but with an Elite membership you enjoy extensive branding and networking opportunities. Learn more at www.PublicPower.org/Join.
