American Municipal Power senior vice president and general counsel for regulatory affairs receives public power service award

Nashville, Tennessee, June 14, 2022 — Lisa G. McAlister, senior vice president and general counsel for regulatory affairs at American Municipal Power, Inc. in Columbus, Ohio, received the Harold Kramer-John Preston Personal Service Award during the American Public Power Association's National Conference in Nashville, Tennessee. The award recognizes individuals for their service to the American Public Power Association (APPA).

Lisa joined American Municipal Power in 2012 as deputy general counsel for Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) and regional transmission organization (RTO) affairs and was named to her current position in 2017. Lisa has served as the chair and vice chair of APPA's Legal Section. She regularly attends APPA's Legal & Regulatory Conference, National Conference, and Legislative Rally. She has represented public power interests before FERC and has testified on RTO energy markets and transmission planning before the U.S. House Subcommittee on Energy. Her contributions in these arenas have advanced the interests and goals of APPA and public power communities across the country.

The American Public Power Association is the voice of not-for-profit, community-owned utilities that power 2,000 towns and cities nationwide. We represent public power before the federal government to protect the interests of the more than 49 million people that public power utilities serve, and the 96,000 people they employ. Our association advocates and advises on electricity policy, technology, trends, training, and operations. Our members strengthen their communities by providing superior service, engaging citizens, and instilling pride in community-owned power.
