

About the Final Summary Report

To help applicants fill out certain pieces of the RP₃ application, RP₃ staff creates a customized report for each applying utility. The Final Summary Report lists the different ways that your utility can receive credit in the RP₃ application process through your involvement with the American Public Power Association.

The customized report is uploaded directly to the application and can be found in the attachment section of the Utility Demographics question (0.0.0).

We've outlined below the different questions this report may help you answer, and highlighted where you can find them in the sample report on the next page:
